Civil Action No. 18-17462 (KM) (MAH)

ORDER ADOPTING DECISION AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SPECIAL DISCOVERY MASTER

This Court, by Order filed on July 17, 2023 [D.E. 237], having appointed the Hon. Rachelle L. Harz (Ret.) to serve as the Special Discovery Master, and having referred a series of discovery disputes to the Special Discovery Master; and the July 17, 2023 Order having provided that any party objecting to a ruling of the Special Discovery Master must file the objection within fourteen days after the ruling, see Order, July 17, 2023, D.E. 237, at ¶11(a);

and the July 17, 2023 Order also having provided that “if no notice of objection is filed within five days of the Special Discovery Master’s ruling, the right to object is waived and the Special Discovery Master’s ruling is deemed adopted in full[.]” id. at ¶11(d);¹

and it appearing that on September 12, 2023, the Special Discovery Master issued a Decision and Recommendation, D.E. 240, that resolved four disputes concerning discovery that Plaintiffs sought from Defendant, see Decision and Recommendation, Sept. 12, 2023, D.E. 240;

and it further appearing that since the issuance of the Special Discovery Master's Decision and Recommendation, no party has filed an objection thereto;

and the Court having conducted a de novo review of the Decision and Recommendation pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 53(f)(3) and (f)(4), and having concluded that the Special Discovery Master applied the correct legal standards to the discovery disputes and reached appropriate conclusions in resolving the discovery disputes;

and for good cause shown;

IT IS on this 4th day of October 2023,

ORDERED THAT the Decision and Recommendation of the Special Discovery Master filed on September 12, 2023 [D.E. 240] is hereby ADOPTED IN FULL.
